

Peter Koh
Senior Consultant - Singapore

- > Litigation & Dispute Resolution
- > Sports Law and Sports Arbitration

Peter has represented clients in arbitral, tribunal and court proceedings in Sports, Shipping and Commercial law cases in Singapore, England and British Columbia/Canada. He appeared in the Federal Courts of Canada, Supreme Courts of British Columbia, High Courts of Singapore and assisted London Silks in the Commercial Courts and the Privy Council in London.

He is an Arbitrator accredited with the Court of Arbitration in Sports (“CAS”) and a member of the Disciplinary Tribunal and Investigator of IAAF.

For more than 20 years, he is an accredited Arbitrator with both CIETAC and CMAC in China.

He was a former pupil of Lord Justice Anthony Evans at then 4 Essex Court, Middle Temple, England. For many years, he acted for major protection and indemnity clubs and was the Legal Correspondent for Japan P & I and China P & I, ship-owners, shipyards and other marine-related industries.

Currently, he is a visiting professor at 9 Chinese universities, including China University of Political Science & Law, Xiamen University, Renmin University and Wuhan University. He conducts a yearly academic course on Sports Law at the China University of Political Science & Law.

In 2008, he was appointed an adjunct professor at the National University of Singapore. He was instrumental in introducing International Shipping Law at both maritime universities in China. From 2008 to 2012, he taught one of the modules leading to the LLM double degrees from New York University and National University of Singapore.

Peter acted for offeror and target entities in transnational business and asset acquisitions in Singapore, India, China and Canada. He also acted for minority shareholders in derivative actions in both Singapore and Canada. He was counsel in securities regulatory tribunals in both Singapore and Canada.

Peter was an Investigator for matters relating to world athletics for the IAAF.

Contact Details

T: +65 6381 6325

E: peter.koh@rhtlawtaylorwessing.com

Create your web profiles (see PDF for example content)

> Introductory paragraph:

(NB: Follow one of the examples in the attached PDF to create a paragraph which clearly describes your job title, key practice/industry group and explains what your specialisms are. Terminology to be included "advises on", "specialises in", "well-known for his/her expertise in". Please do not just copy your pitch profile text but reword to ensure there is sufficient use of keywords and a clear focus on your expertise that could feature in searches.

Peter Koh is both a CIETAC and CMAC arbitrator. His main areas of practice include shipping and admiralty, securities regulation and transnational mergers and acquisitions. He was appointed to be an Investigator by IAAF's Ethics Commission in October 2015. He was Chief Representative of Beijing-based international law firm for 5 years and was Legal Correspondent for major protection & indemnity clubs for more than 10 years.

> Experience:

(NB: Provide relevant headline client names (client names should only be included if we have permission to disclose this information OR if there is no risk of a conflict, if not make a reference to the type or company) THESE SHOULD BE SHOWN AS A MAXIMUM LIST OF 10 (no more than 3 years old unless highly relevant) AND BE UPDATED REGULARLY.)

Name / type of company	Activities (maximum of 20 words)
Confidential	Acted for a Chinese law firm in connection with a ship arrest in Singapore involving a shipyard and its financiers.
LAAX in Switzerland and Genting Secret Garden Ski in Beijing	Acted for LAAX in Switzerland and Genting Secret Garden Ski in Beijing in their strategic resort collaboration.
Bank of East Asia Ltd	Advising the Bank of East Asia Ltd (Singapore and Shanghai) on the issue of offshore/onshore financing using documentary letters of standby credit.
Confidential	Acted for a multi-national company in Singapore in its acquisition of an aircraft paint plant in Ontario.
Confidential	Acted for a Singapore logistics company in its aborted sale of its business operations to a German logistics company.
Confidential	Acted for and against listed entities in North America in their legal disputes over senior management dismissal and negligence before securities regulatory tribunals.
Wang Jing & C	Advising Wang Jing & Co, a leading national shipping law firm with offices in 9 cities, on all issues pertaining to English shipping and admiralty legal issues.

Create your web profiles (see PDF for example content)

>

Career:

(NB: starting with the most recent, list all your relevant professional experience. Maximum of 10 roles)

YearsPositions held

Leading counsel in the Singapore High Court, BC Supreme Court and Canadian Federal Court

Assisted London silks in the Privy Council, Commercial Court and arbitral proceedings in London

Taught "International Shipping Law" to LLM students at National University of Singapore and New York University

Permanent Visiting Professor at Dalian Maritime University, Shanghai Maritime University and 7 other universities in China.

>

Education:

(NB: include all relevant education)

YearCourse title from establishment

1977

National University of Singapore

1983

London School of Economics

1988

Fellowship of the Chartered Institute of Arbitrators in UK

Create your web profiles (see PDF for example content)

> Publications:

(NB: include all relevant articles written for external publication. MAXIMUM of 10)

Title	Published in, date pp from - to
Major Issues in Company Law (with PRC and English Comparative Notes)	Sweet & Maxwell/Thomson Reuters group, 4th Edition, January 2016
Major Issues in Shipping Law (with PRC and English Comparative Notes)	Sweet & Maxwell/Thomson Reuters group, 1st Edition, 2014
Mergers & Acquisitions in China	Sweet & Maxwell/Thomson Reuters group, (1 st and 2 nd editions) 2009
Institute Cargo Clauses & Marine Insurance	Butterworths 1988
The Law of Partnership in Singapore and Malaysia	Professional Publications 1988

> Memberships & Associations:

(NB: relevant to your expertise, maximum of 10)

- Former director, Vancouver Maritime Arbitrators Association.
- Former Legal Adviser. Singapore National Shippers Council.
- Former Honorary Secretary, Singapore Maritime Law Association.
- Former Member of Topics Committee, International Congress of Maritime Arbitrators

> Awards & Recognition:

(NB: include JUVE, Legal 500, Chambers etc. for the past 2 years. MAXIMUM 5.)

-
-
-
-