COURT OF ARBITRATION FOR SPORT (CAS) REJECTS URGENT APPLICATION FOR PROVISIONAL MEASURES FILED BY PETER SAGAN & DENK PRO CYCLING GMBH

Lausanne, 6 July 2017 – The Court of Arbitration of Sport (CAS) issued a decision rejecting an urgent request for provisional measures filed by the Slovak cyclist Peter Sagan and the Denk Pro Cycling team in the afternoon of 5 July 2017. The rider and team appealed the exclusion of the rider by the UCI Commissaires Panel on 4 July 2017 following an incident during the sprint phase at the end of the 4th stage of the 2017 Tour de France (Mondorf-les-Bains to Vittel).

Accordingly, Peter Sagan remains disqualified from the 2017 Tour de France.
