

Prof. Dr. Shuli Guo

RESUME

Professor Shuli Guo was born in Liling, Hunan Province, P. R. China in 1975. He got his Bachelor and Master Degree in Law from Law School of Xiangtan University in 1997 and 2000, then PhD in Law from Law School of Wuhan University in 2003. He taught at Xiangtan University Law School from 2000 to 2015 and currently works as a professor at Kenneth Wang School of Law of Soochow University, mainly engaged in the teaching and research of private international law and sports law.

Professor Guo was a visiting scholar funded by the China Scholarship Council at Asser Institute International Sports Law Centre in the Hague, the Netherlands from 2005 to 2006, at National Sports Law Institute of Marquette University in Milwaukee USA from 2013 to 2014, and at the Law School of Melbourne University from 2023-2024. He is currently the executive director of China Association of Private International Law (2008-) and China Association of Sports Law (2015-), former member of Disciplinary Committee of China Anti-Doping Agency(2018-2021), former member of the Expert Advisory Council of the China Anti-Doping Agency(2021-2025), former Legal Advisor of the Chinese Olympic Committee Olympic Games Preparation Office(2020-2022), arbitrator of Court of Arbitration for Sport (CAS) (2019-), and China Commission of Arbitration for Sport (2024-).

Professor Guo has published papers in International Sports Law Journal, Marquette Sports Law Review, Chinese Social Science Digest, Peking University Law Journal, Journal of Comparative Law, Law Science, Law Review, ECUPL Journal, Civil and Commercial Law Review, Chinese Yearbook of International Law, PKU International and Comparative Law Review, Chaoyang Law Review, Cross-Strait Law Review, China Sport Science, etc. He is mainly engaged in anti-doping legal issues in recent years and has published papers such as On the Revision of the World Anti-Doping Code 2021, You Cannot Participate in the Olympic Games Even after the Doping Suspension Expiring? - The Review of the Osaka Rule

Reintroduction by the IOC, Identification of Significant Fault of Athlete Doping Violation in Perspective of Sharapova's Case, Athlete Biological Passport and Doping Penalty, Application and Refinement for Rule of Unechte Ruckbewirkung of World Anti-Doping Code, Determination of Athletes' Negligence for Whereabouts Failure: Analysis of the Mikael Ymer Case, etc.

Professor Guo has published books such as Plural Remedy Mechanisms for Sports Disputes in Perspective of Comparative Law and International Law (sole author), Law in Sports: Legal Problems in Sports (co-author), Special Study on Foreign Sports Legal System (editor in chief), What's the Sports Law (editor in chief), Mediating Sports Disputes: National and International Perspectives (translation), Sports Law (translation), etc.

Professor Guo was the principal investigator of several sports law research projects which four were funded by the National Social Science Fund of China, one by Ministry of Justice, Four by General Administration of Sport of China and one by China Law Society.

In 2010, he was elected by China Law Innovation Website as one of the “China 100 Rising Stars of Law”.

Email: Shuli@suda.edu.cn; Tel: 0086-13915584179