

Om Lalla

Om Lalla is a distinguished attorney-at-law from Trinidad and Tobago with more than three decades of experience in high-stakes litigation, criminal defence, sports law, and complex commercial disputes. Over the course of his career, he has developed a strong reputation for managing contentious and high-profile matters involving issues of constitutional law, public policy, regulatory enforcement, and reputational risk.

Mr. Lalla has represented senior public officials, corporate entities, private clients, athletes, and sporting administrative bodies throughout the Caribbean region in matters attracting significant legal and public scrutiny. His work in sports-related disputes has included advisory and advocacy roles concerning governance, disciplinary proceedings, athlete representation, regulatory compliance, and principles of procedural fairness in sport.

A significant aspect of his professional work has involved the protection and advancement of human rights, including matters concerning due process, citizen rights, state authority, equality before the law, and access to justice. His advocacy has consistently reflected a commitment to the rule of law, institutional accountability, and internationally recognised standards of fairness and equity.

Mr. Lalla's professional and diplomatic engagement also reflects an appreciation for the broader objectives embodied in the United Nations Sustainable Development Goals, particularly those relating to peace, justice, strong institutions, and inclusive societies under SDG 16. His legal practice and public service work have demonstrated a continuing interest in promoting transparent governance, ethical leadership, and the fair administration of justice within both public institutions and sporting bodies.

In addition to his legal practice, Mr. Lalla serves as Honorary Consul for Slovenia in Trinidad and Tobago, reflecting his active engagement in diplomacy and cross-border relations. His practice is distinguished by strategic insight, extensive courtroom experience, and a disciplined, independent approach to adjudication and advocacy.
