Erica Stein acts as arbitrator in international commercial and investment arbitrations and is recognized as an expert for her broad work experience in all aspects of arbitral practice. Erica currently serves as Vice Chair of the IBA Arbitration Committee. She is also the previous Co-Chair of the IBA Investment Arbitration Subcommittee and, before that, the IBA Arbitration Guidelines and Rules Subcommittee, during which tenure she led the IBA Task Force on the Revision of the 2014 Guidelines on Conflicts of Interest and the IBA Task Force on Privilege in International Arbitration. She was also a member of the Task Force for the Revision of the 2010 IBA Rules on the Taking of Evidence. She is a member of the ICC Commission on Arbitration and ADR and has taken part in the ICC Task Force on Arbitration and ADR and the ICC Task Force on Emergency Arbitrator Proceedings. She serves on the Academic Committee of the CEPANI (the Belgian Centre for Arbitration and Mediation) and the Editorial Board of b-Arbitra, the Belgian Review of Arbitration (Wolters Kluwer). Erica also served for eight years as the Vice President of the DIS Arbitration Council (German Arbitration Institute) and six years on the Standing Committee of the ICC International Centre for ADR, the last four of which as Vice President. Erica also teaches, most recently lecturing on the New York Convention at both the MIDS (Geneva LL.M. in International Dispute Settlement) and National University of Singapore. Erica has been selected among the Who's Who Legal: Arbitration since 2012, denoted as a Global Elite Thought Leader and described as a lawyer with “an amazing mind for investor-state disputes”, “a brilliant arbitrator who is strong in complex procedures” and highly valued for her “sharp eye and keen judgement” and “diligence and care” on a wide range of international arbitration cases. Erica is on the ICSID Panel of Arbitrators, appointed by the President of the World Bank Group.
