Alexandra Johnson is a partner in the Geneva office of Pestalozzi Attorneys at Law and has over 20 years of experience in international arbitration. She has acted as counsel in numerous arbitration proceedings, both ad hoc and institutional (eg, ICC, LCIA, Swiss Rules, CAS) in various matters such as international joint venture agreements, long-term gas supply contracts, construction and engineering, distribution and licensing, sale of goods, pharmaceutical, governance, M&A and sport-related disputes.

Alexandra Johnson has also acted as chair, sole and co-arbitrator in several arbitration proceedings. She is listed on several panels of arbitrators such as the panel of arbitrators of the AAA/ICDR, BVI IAC, CAS, CPR, EDAC, JAIAC, HKIAC, ICC Swiss Commission of Arbitration and ADR and SIAC.

Moreover, Alexandra Johnson frequently advises clients on Swiss contract law and represents parties in enforcement proceedings before Swiss courts, as well as in challenge proceedings against or in defense of arbitral awards before the Swiss Federal Supreme Court.

Alexandra Johnson graduated summa cum laude in 1997 from the Neuchâtel University Law School and holds an LLM (2001) from Harvard Law School (Fulbright scholar). She is admitted to the Geneva and New York bars.

Alexandra Johnson is the Vice-President of the Arbitration Court of the Swiss Arbitration Centre. She is Head Lecturer and a member of the Academic Council of the Swiss Arbitration Academy. She co-chairs the Swiss Arbitration Association (ASA) local group in Geneva and is a member of the ICC Commission on Arbitration and ADR and of the Advisory Board of the Jamaican International Arbitration Centre (JAIAC). She regularly speaks and writes on international arbitration topics.

She is fluent in English and French and has a good working knowledge of German, as well as a basic knowledge of Italian.
