

Mark Muedeking (1954)

Attorney-at-law (USA) Eng
DLA Piper US, LLP

Partner, DLA Piper LLP (US). Primary areas of practice include: business; tax; employee benefits and executive compensation; litigation of ERISA and employee benefits matters and sports law. Represents public and private companies, tax-exempt charities, trade associations, foundations and corporate chief executives. Prior to joining the firm, served as a Trial Attorney for the United States Department of Justice, Tax Division. Hired under the Attorney General's Honors Program. Experience includes representation of the United States in complex civil tax litigation in the United States District Courts; received the Tax Division's Outstanding Attorney Award. Listed in the top tier of lawyers in Chambers USA: America's Leading Lawyers for Business.

Served as the Managing Director and General Counsel of the United States Olympic Committee ("USOC"). Hired in connection with management changes implemented as a result of the Salt Lake City bid scandal. Was responsible for managing all legal affairs of the organization, including matters arbitrated before the American Arbitration Association (AAA) and the Court of Arbitration for Sport (CAS). Following the 2000 Summer Games, represented the USOC in connection with the formation and oversight of an independent, international panel to review an alleged cover-up of doping violations by USA Track & Field and served as the Chair of a committee established by the USOC to review and revise the USOC rules applicable to adjudication of athlete grievances. Has served on several panels reviewing athlete grievances and disputes and was chairman of special committees established to review governance of national governing bodies. From 2006-2007, was a principal advisor to Senator George Mitchell in connection with his investigation into the use of performance-enhancing drugs in Major League Baseball. Arbitrator for AAA in sports matters. Member of the Board of Directors and the General Counsel of the Snowsports Industries of America, a trade association dedicated to the promotion of snow sports.