

Professor Cameron Myler
New York University
Tisch Institute for Global Sport
7 E. 12th St., 4th Floor, New York, NY 10003
phone: 917.714.0274 | email: cameron.myler@nyu.edu

SUMMARY

- Clinical Assistant Professor of Sports Law and Governance at New York University
- CAS and AAA arbitrator, including on the CAS Anti-Doping Division at the 2018 Olympics in PyeongChang
- Attorney with more than a decade of experience litigating intellectual property matters in federal and state court, and representing athletes and sports organizations in doping, eligibility and other matters as before the AAA and CAS
- Four-time Olympian in luge (1988, 1992, 1994, 1998)

ACADEMIC & LEGAL EXPERIENCE

- New York University, New York, NY 2011-present
Tisch Institute for Global Sport
- Clinical Assistant Professor of Sports Law and Governance 2014-present
- Undergraduate and graduate classes include Sports Law, Legal Issues in Sports, Intellectual Property & Licensing, International Sports Governance, Amateur Sports Governance, Organizations in Sports, and the Internship class.
  - Leader of the Law and Governance Community of Practice, supervising other NYU faculty in the Tisch Institute teaching law and governance classes.
  - Member of the school's Rank, Title, and Privilege Committee, Chair of the Tisch Institute Scholarship Committee, Member of the Dean's Graduate Scholar Selection Committee.
  - Guest lecturer at, inter alia, Keio University in Tokyo, Japan, the University of Lausanne in Switzerland, Columbia University in New York, The New School in New York, the International Olympic Academy in Olympia, Greece, and NYU Law School.
- Faculty Fellow in Residence, Gramercy Green, NYU 2017-present
- The position of Faculty Fellow-in-Residence at NYU is a prestigious appointment and part of an ongoing university effort to create vibrant and personal "learning communities" for NYU students within the residence halls as a way to integrate students' academic experiences with their residential lives.
- Adjunct Instructor 2011-2013
- Quinn Emanuel Urquhart & Sullivan, LLP, New York, NY 2013-2017
Premier business litigation firm with offices worldwide
- Attorney
- Cases include antitrust class action against National Hockey League concerning television broadcasts and a broad range of commercial litigation matters.
- Frankfurt Kurnit Klein + Selz, New York, NY 2003-2011
Nationally known media, entertainment and intellectual property firm
- Senior Associate, Litigation, Intellectual Property and Entertainment
- Represented numerous Olympic athletes, sports organizations and executives in regulatory, eligibility, anti-doping and ethics matters, including before the Court of Arbitration for Sport and the American Arbitration Association. Litigated first-ever "non-analytical positive" case brought by the U.S. Anti-Doping Agency in connection with the federal criminal investigation of BALCO.

Professor Cameron Myler

- Advised clients such as Nike, Tribune Media Services, and the Tribeca Film Festival on a wide array of trademark, copyright, right of publicity, unfair competition, licensing and other commercial matters.

Milbank, Tweed, Hadley & McCloy, New York, NY

2001-2003

Global law firm that provides a full range of legal services to Fortune 100 companies

Associate, Intellectual Property / Litigation Group

- Litigated trademark, copyright, and unfair competition cases; drafted licensing agreements; advised clients on trademark applications.

Hogan & Hartson, Colorado Springs, CO

Summer Law Clerk

1999

SPORTS ORGANIZATION EXPERIENCE

USA Luge, Lake Placid, NY

1993-present

National governing body for the sport of luge in the United States

- Chair, Audit and Ethics Committee (2016-present)
- Vice President (1998-2001)
- Board of Directors (1993-2001)
- Co-Chair, Athletes' Council (1993-1998)

International Olympic Committee

2014

- Member of Working Group on Culture Strategy, which provided recommendations to the IOC with respect to Olympic Agenda 2020.

United States Olympic Committee

1996-2004

Organization governing Olympic and Paralympic Sport in the United States

- Board of Directors (1996-2003)
- Athletes' Advisory Council (1996-2004)
- Legislation Committee (2003-2004)
- Government Relations and Planning Committee (2000-2004)
- Athlete Support (1996-2000)
- Appointed to Governance & Ethics Task Force that developed and led implementation of governance reform; testified before U.S. House Subcommittee on Commerce, Trade and Consumer Protection (2003)

International Olympic Academy, Olympia, Greece

Educational center affiliated with International Olympic Committee that promotes Olympism worldwide

- Supervising Professor at the IOA's International Seminar on Olympic Studies for Postgraduate Students; lectured to PhD and Master's students on Olympic-related issues in law, organizational governance, dispute resolution, and athletes' rights (2014, 2015)
- Served as Research Coordinator on the Executive Committee of IOA Participants' Association (2013-2015)
- Delegate from the United States to the IOA's Young Participants Session (1997)
- Discussion Group Coordinator at Young Participants Session to facilitate academic discussion among participants from 100+ countries regarding Olympic philosophy and values (1998)

U.S. Olympic Academy

1998, 1999

- Presented workshop on the Olympic ideals to community-based organizations

Professor Cameron Myler

NYC2012, New York, NY

2002-2005

Organization that planned New York City's bid for the 2012 Olympic Games

- Board of Directors and Circle of Olympians

Kids Play International

2011-present

Nonprofit organization that uses sport to promote gender equity in countries impacted by genocide

Board of Directors / Athlete Ambassador

Athlete Ally

2013-present

Nonprofit organization that promotes inclusion of the LGBTQ community in sports

Athlete Ambassador

SPORTS EXPERIENCE

U.S. Olympic and National Luge Teams

1985-1998

- Member of four United States Olympic Teams: 1988 (Calgary), 1992 (Albertville), 1994 (Lillehammer) and 1998 (Nagano)
- Member of U.S. National Luge Team from 1985-1998
- Winner of 11 World Cup medals
- 7-time U.S. National Champion
- 9-time U.S. Luge Female Athlete of Year
- Elected by U.S. Olympic teammates to carry the American flag at the Opening Ceremonies at the 1994 Olympics in Lillehammer, Norway

EDUCATION

Dartmouth College, Hanover, NH | Bachelor of Arts, Geography, cum laude (1995)

Boston College Law School, Newton, MA | Juris Doctor (2001)

University of Poitiers, France | Executive Masters in Sports Organization Management (MEMOS) coordinated by the International Olympic Committee (2014)

RECENT SPEAKING ENGAGEMENTS AND PUBLICATIONS

- NYU Tisch Institute of Global Sport, New York, NY: "Let the Games Begin: A Preview of Legal and Business Issues at the 2018 Olympic Games" (January 2018)
- New York University Law School: guest lecture in Sports Law class on "Legal and Regulatory Issues in Olympic Sport" (January 2018)
- Google, New York, NY: "Tracy Evans and Cameron Myler - Gold in the Cold: Winning at the Olympic Games | Talks at Google" (January 2018)
- Champions for America's Future, Washington, D.C. (January 2018)
- The Leadership Connection, New York, New York: "Let the Games Begin: A 2018 Winter Olympics Preview" (January 2018)
- University of Lausanne, Lausanne, Switzerland: guest lecture in Sports Arbitration class on "ADR and Doping in Olympic Sports" (November 2017)
- Columbia University, New York, NY: guest lecture in Sports Law class on "Legal and Regulatory Issues in Olympic Sport" (October 2017)
- NYU School of Professional Studies, New York, NY: "Superheroes to Superstar Athletes" (October 2017)
- ABA Forum on the Entertainment and Sports Industries Annual Conference, Las Vegas: "ADR in Sports: It Fits Like a [Baseball] Glove" (October 2017)

Professor Cameron Myler

- 4th China U.S. Sports Forum, New York, NY: "The Sports Eco-System and Athletes Cultivation" (September 2017)
- ABA Business Section Annual Conference, Chicago: "Foul!: Gender Equality in Sport an Oxymoron?" (September 2017)
- Keio University Graduate School of System Design and Management, Tokyo, Japan: Guest Lecturer in week-long intensive program on Olympic sports organization governance, ADR in sports, current issues in anti-doping, athlete branding and career transition, sports contracts, and intellectual property issues (August 2017)
- Professional Business Women of California Annual Conference, San Francisco, CA: "Living Your Authentic Life with Olympic Values" (March 2017)
- NYU Tisch Institute, New York, NY: "Women in Sports Law Career Panel" (March 2017)
- NYU Law School, New York, NY: "Careers in Sports Law" (November 2016)
- NYU School of Professional Studies, New York, NY: "Global Careers in Tourism and Sports" (November 2016)
- Keio University Sports X Conference, Tokyo, Japan: "Developing a Graduate Sports Business Curriculum" (October 2016)
- NYU Tisch Institute, New York, NY: "Women in Sports: Careers in Media" (October 2016)
- Marketing Executives Networking Group, New York, NY: "Not Business as Usual at the Olympic Games in Rio" (August 2016)
- The New School, New York, NY: "The 2016 Rio Olympics & Brazil's Collapsing Political System" (May 2016)
- 2016 Sports Law for Rookies and Veterans, New York, NY: "Hot Topics in Amateur Sports" (April 2016)
- Court of Arbitration for Sport and Sport Dispute Resolution Centre of Canada, Vancouver: Pursuing Excellence in Sport Dispute Resolution Seminar, "Issues Arising from New Doping Rules" (January 2016)
- NYU Sports & Society, Stamford, CT: "Youth Sports: Whose Game is it Anyway?: A Conference for Parents and Community Leaders" (November 2015)
- Harvard Law School, Cambridge, MA: "Olympics and the Law" (October 2015)
- Supervising Faculty at International Olympic Academy's Seminar on Olympic Studies for Post-Graduate Students (September 2015)
- NYU Sports & Society, NYU Abu Dhabi: "Embracing Sports in the U.A.E.: Building Domestically, Expanding Globally" (November 2014)
- Supervising Faculty at International Olympic Academy's Seminar on Olympic Studies for Post-Graduate Students (September 2014)
- IWG World Conference on Women in Sport, Helsinki, Finland: "Using Sport As A Tool To Promote Inclusion" (June 2014)
- University of New Hampshire Law School Sports and Entertainment Law Institute, Concord, NH: "Russian Ban on Homosexual Propaganda and the Impact on the Sochi Olympic Games" (February 2014)
- NYU Tisch Center for Hospitality, Tourism, & Sports Management: "Lounge to London: An Olympic Discussion With Tisch Center Esteemed Faculty" (April 2012)
- NYU Law School, Intellectual Property Entertainment Law Society: "Olympic Broadcast and Intellectual Property Rights" (March 2012)
- Columbia University, New York, NY: guest lecture in Sports Law class on "Anti-Doping Regulation and Adjudication in Olympic Sports" (February 2012)